About And Our Faces, My Heart, Brief As Photos 'Those who read or listen to our stories see everything as though through a lens. This lens is the secret of narration, and it is ground anew in every story, ground between the temporal and the timeless ... In our brief mortal lives, we are grinders of these lenses'.

For this writing assignment, start with a photo. This can be any kind of photograph -- it can be in an album or a frame -- it can be on-line or in a book. As yesterday, there is a poem (and today, also a song) at the end of the post.

Modest, uncontentious reflections on things personal and epochal—time and timelessness, love, home—by the noted Marxist critic of art and society. Berger's first series of vignettes and poems is entitled "Once" (as "Once in a Story," "Once in a Painting"). The thoughts are not remarkable—the duality of body and consciousness, the primacy of words over communication in poetry.
