The George Washington Undergraduate Law Review is a student-managed and published legal journal that analyzes current legal issues across a variety of specialties, including environmental, criminal, immigration, civil, and international law. The Undergraduate Law Review offers students the opportunity to explore legal research, enrich their writing and critical thinking skills, and make a valuable contribution to legal discussion during their undergraduate studies. The writings published in the Undergraduate Law Review conform to the 19th Edition of The Bluebook legal citation system, while adhering to the academic integrity of The George Washington University. The Pre-Law Student Association is proud of the work of these student authors and editors and their efforts in producing this journal.

LARRY MILLER is the tough-as-nails, fun-loving, working class bad boy who in the 1960s saved young North Carolina coach Dean Smith's job by winning his first two ACC titles and a trip to the National Championship game. A two-time All American, Miller was also the first heartthrob of the modern ACC, going on to become the Joe Namath of the ABA while setting the pro league's All-Time Single Game scoring record. And then he simply disappeared. Now, for the first time, North Carolina's foundational player shares priceless stories from his scrappy youth in Lehigh Valley steel country... from the locker rooms, road trips, parties and fights of the teams that established Dean Smith's Tar Heel legacy... and from the raffish early days of modern pro basketball. Larry Miller Time is a candid, immersive narrative for every follower of UNC and classic basketball lore, and a Brigadoon of America's good old days.
