Connectography offers a unique and hopeful vision for the future. Khanna argues that new energy discoveries and technologies have eliminated the need for resource wars; ambitious transport corridors and power grids are unscrambling Africa's fraught colonial borders; even the Arab world is evolving a more peaceful map as it builds resource and trade routes across its war-torn landscape.

CONNECTOGRAPHY: Mapping the Future of Global Civilization. It is time to reimagine how life is organized on Earth. We're accelerating into a future shaped less by countries than by connectivity. Mankind has a new maxim - Connectivity is destiny - and the most connected powers, and people, will win.

Connectography completes Parag Khanna's trilogy on the future of world order.

Connectography: Mapping the Future of Global Civilization ...

Parag Khanna's Connectography follows the rise of global supply chains and argues economic links between cities are supplanting national and subnational borders as the most relevant way to organize the global economy. He traces supply chains' impact on development, culture, and ideas.

Connectography: Mapping the Future of Global Civilization ...

Parag, the author of The Second World and How to Run the World, is a visionary, and visual, thinker who offers a hopeful, yet realistic, (literal) map of the world's future. His new book, Connectography, does that in spades and hits bookshelves today, and Mr. Khanna was kind enough to share the prologue with us.

Connectography: Mapping the Future of Global Civilization

In Connectography, Parag Khanna surveys the economic, political and technological landscape and lays out the case for why "competitive connectivity" - with cities and supply chains as the vital nodes - is the true arms race of the twenty-first century. This bold reframing is an exciting addition to our ongoing debate about geopolitics and the future of globalization' -- Dominic Barton, Global Managing Partner, McKinsey & Company
