The relationship between nursing theory and nursing practice can be described as working in two ways. First, theory is often based on observations that are taken from practice. Second, decisions made in practice are often determined by drawing on nursing theories. Nursing theory is often used to explain nursing practice.

What Is the Relationship between Nursing Theory and Family assessment model—Primarily based on three theoretical perspectives: systems theory; structural-functional theory; and family development theory. Provides students with the solid knowledge base needed to complete the family assessment and to develop family nursing diagnoses and intervention guidelines.
