Jerusalem a Play by Jez Butterworth

Synopsis. Jerusalem is a raucous, provocative new work that tells of a modern, mythic English hero: Johnny "Rooster" Byron. During the course of this Tony-nominated play, Johnny tells tales, gets drunk, does drugs, dodges the authorities, and both charms and infuriates all that he meets. The play opens on the morning of the local county fair, and we discover that Johnny Byron is both the most and least popular man in town.
