PASSION By Lisa Valdez * An Irresistible Seduction “I have what you need,” he said, his voice rough and urgent. His broad-shouldered frame blocked them from view as his hand slid to her breast. “And you have what I need.” “Yes.”

Revenge against the countess, who snubbed you from her society and, therefore, from all noble society. And it was all for naught. Now that your evil machinations have been exposed, we are all ruined. So don't try to play this off as if you're some great martyr to my elevation!". She shook her head.

Passion shivered as she felt a hand slide around her waist. A hint of lemon verbena flirted with her senses. She looked up. Excitement sparked through her. Mark! He was frowning hard at the gentleman. "Is this man bothering you, darling?" Passion blanched. They were supposed to be strangers. No one should know they knew each other.
