This omnibus collects the 1992-4 Tamuli trilogy: Domes of Fire, The Shining Ones and The Hidden City, totting up to 1,429 pages of slick storytelling. Following from the Elenium trio (1989-91), this takes hardbitten knight Sparhawk, his feisty queen and wife and various companions--including a terminally cute Child Goddess--to the hard-pressed Tamul Empire.

Much like its prequel trilogy, the Elenium, Eddings' Tamuli is a light, entertaining read that immerses the reader in a detailed world that the characters fully explore over the course of three books. I thought this trilogy did a much better job elaborating on the cosmology of the universe, going into more detail all the competing religions.
