The Golden Egg, published as The Vanishing in English-speaking countries, is a psychological thriller novella written by Dutch author Tim Krabbé, first published in 1984. The plot centers on a man whose obsession over the fate of his missing lover from years ago drives him to confront her abductor and pay the ultimate sacrifice in order to know the truth. The book was adapted into a 1988 film which was later remade in an English-language version by the same director.

It is time for the Golden Egg Hunt, and Cherry Blossom wants to be the lucky pony to find the Golden Egg this year, but while all the other ponies seem to find eggs so easily, Cherry Blossom can't find a single one! Original.

From the author of Jumpstart's Read for the Record pick Quackers comes the story of Henrietta the Elephant, whose life goes from calm to chaotic when a baby goose comes to stay. Henrietta likes her quiet life. A morning swim, a cup of tea--all is serene. But everything changes when she bumps her head and winds up with a goose egg--a REAL goose egg. Henrietta tries to return the baby goose to the nest, but her flock has flown. It's up to Henrietta to raise her. Goose isn't anything like Henrietta. She's flappy, and noisy, and exhausting. But Henrietta raises that goose right. She teaches her to swim, and to honk, and to fly. When Goose flies off with the other geese, Henrietta is so proud! And then . . . lonely. How quiet her life feels now. But the love you give has a way of coming back to you. And Henrietta has a wonderful surprise in store. . . .

The country bunny attains the exalted position of Easter Bunny in spite of her responsibilities as the mother of twenty-one children.

In the spring a young rabbit searches the forest for a place to make his home.

Bunny has spent a long night hiding Easter eggs, and now it's time to get some rest. But when she burrows down to sleep, something disturbs her, and everywhere else she tries to nap just isn't right. She tries the old oak tree—too noisy! She tries a little boat on the lily pond—too wet! She tries the greenhouse—oh no! Where will Bunny go? Anne Mortimer's charming story is just right for Easter-time sharing.
