Bernard Connolly, born in Manchester in 1949.

~~The Rotten Heart of Europe: Dirty War for Europe's Money ...~~

The publication of The Rotten Heart of Europe led the Wall Street Journal Europe to name Connolly as one of its outstanding Europeans of the year in 1995 and in March 2001 he received the Frøde Jakobsen prize, awarded in Denmark for outstanding moral courage in public affairs. More recently, Bank of Canada Governor Mark Carney has identified Connolly as one of the very few economists who predicted the current global economic and financial crisis.

account of these events in Bernard Connolly's book The Rotten Heart of Europe. The coarseness of its title and cover are misleading: signs more of self-conscious encanaillement on the part of smart publishing than of authorial quality. The book suffers from an occasional lapse of taste, and a liking for melodrama.
