Storyline. Morgan Freeman explores the mysteries of divine visions and the people who claim to have them. He travels to Lourdes, France, to meet a woman who believes she was cured of paralysis by miraculous waters; to London, to meet a man whose divine visions followed a life-saving surgery, and to Canada, to meet an Anishnaabe man who endured days alone in the wilderness for the sake of divine vision.

Vision For God The Story Of Dr Margaret Brand

Over and over and over the prophets and Jesus share God's vision about the importance of ethical, loving, concerned for others behavior by the people of God. Through the centuries, there have been too many to count who claim the temple, claim the name of Jesus, claim to be Christians - whose ethics, love and concern for others fall far short of our stated beliefs.

We all face the temptation to pursue our dreams, call it a vision, and then ask God to bless it. God's vision for our lives should be the heartbeat that pumps through everything we do. But how do we separate God's vision from our own? Discovering who God created you to be and what God is shaping you to do is not a one-time event. God reveals his vision to us over time. And we usually only see part of the vision at first.

Vision For God The Story Of Dr Margaret Brand

But at the time when he was struck with amazement at the extraordinary vision, and resolving to worship no other God than him who had appeared to him, he sent for those who were acquainted with the mysteries of his doctrines, and enquired who that God was, and what the vision meant. They affirmed that he was God, the only begotten Son of the one and only God: that the sign which had appeared was the symbol of immortality, and the trophy of that victory over death which he won in the past ...

God Wants You To Succeed (2) 'I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.' 3 John 1:2 NKJV Jesus said, 'What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?' (Mark 8:36 NKJV) And to drive home His point, He told the story of a rich man who died and went to hell, while a poor man on his doorstep went to Heaven.
